Colour Analysis, Image and Style Newsletter

Subscribe to our free email newsletter for anyone and everyone interested in colour analysis, image and style

Subscribe to my free email newsletter for:

- Tips and advice on colour, style, wardrobe, make-up, beauty, fashion and lots more!
- My contentious opinions on most of the above!
- Discounts on our products are announced from time to time and these are only available to newsletter subscribers, eg. we offered 5% - 20% off any product on the website between 11th and 17th January 2007. Did you miss out on this?

You will also be the first to hear about:

- New content on the website
- Latest dates for workshops. Some are not advertised to the general public so you will only hear about them if you subscribe to our newsletter
- New products as they become available
- Latest fashion trends

"Thank you for your latest newsletter which was brilliant, and made me laugh out loud. I really enjoy getting them all." Susan, UK

"The changing rooms e-mail you sent was fantastic. My friend and I both marvelled at how such a simple story made such sense to us, very powerful." DC, Stockport, UK

The emails are sent in HTML format. If you are using a work / business email address, you may need to check that your technical chaps will not filter these out before they reach you!

YOUR COLOURING
You don't have to answer any of the following questions but as I find out more about you, I will be able to write better newsletters and eBooks to help YOU. For instance, if most people signing up for this newsletter have not had their Colours 'done' before, then I need to focus more on how you can find out which Season and/or Tonal Direction you are.
Have you had your Colours 'done' already?	No <input type="button" value=""/>
Do you know your Season?	Not sure <input type="button" value=""/>
Do you know your Tonal Direction?	Not sure <input type="button" value=""/>
YOUR STYLE
I would always suggest that you have your Colours analysed before embarking on Style, but in this world I assume nothing. If it turns out that most people don't know their Style personality, then this is an area I need to concentrate on (plus, this bit will also tell me what kind of personality you are and that's what I'm really interested in!).

Have you had your Style analysed?

No

Do you know your Style Personality?

Not sure

More testimonials

"I have just read your 'Stories from the Changing Room' and was pleased to find someone else who would prefer to catalogue-shop to trailing round town. When I was talking to a style consultant locally she said that one needed to see items in the flesh before buying. I strongly disagree with this as the catalogues I use allow customers to return goods, and when I receive my order it gives me the opportunity to try the clothes on in the comfort of my home and to experiment with other items in my wardrobe. I now feel I can catalogue-shop with confidence."
Susan, UK

"Am loving your articles - really enjoy getting my emails!" Ceann, New Zealand

Sent after my newsletter 'What to wear as a wedding guest' - "Once again, your newsletter is timely and informative. Appreciate the advice as I myself have a wedding to attend in August!" Noreen, USA

"Many thanks for your fashion tips, articles and very interesting anecdotes." Ingrid, UK

"Am enjoying all the newsletters - I especially like the info you give for colour combinations for each season to wear. It's also good to have a recommendation for somewhere to shop where the shop assistant is helpful and knows her stuff - more of that would be great." Karen, UK

Sent after my newsletter 'Packing for a holiday' - "Off on hols on Tues. Very timely email. Great." Tina, UK

"I really love the newsletters. They are really great!! and I look forward to receiving more." Sarah, UK colour consultant

Sent after my newsletter 'Swimwear to flatter your figure' - "These are great tips.... Very much needed as I find myself wearing baby tees and tights at the beach! Now I can look for a flattering suit. Thanks a mil! Your fashion friend." Noreen, USA.

"I thought your make-up issue was very useful. I think that a lot of women need as much help in this area as possible, so any future issues on make-up is very much appreciated!" Laura, UK

"Thank you so much for your newsletters - they are ace and your eBook is wonderful." S. Simpson, Image Consultant, Middle East

Even more testimonials

"Thank you for the make-up tips. I'm going to print them out and carry them with me. I have been steam-rolled by sales people in the past and trusted their judgment. I feel a lot more confident about facing the make-up counter assistants now, and being able to continue the new look." GP, UK

"Thank you for this great "pick me up" and practical email. Lots of fun to read!!" DL, California, USA

"You encourage with such truth and wisdom. Thank you for sharing what you know with so many people. God bless you!" Debbie, USA

"I am happy to receive your newsletter when I do. You inspired me to change my look. I am a 35-year-old Indian woman born in the West Indies and I am medium to light in complexion. I used to have light brown hair with platinum streaks in it. For a few years I had variations of this style. I recently went on vacation in NYC and upon reading your letters I was inspired to go much darker. I now have jet/blue-black hair and it has changed my look completely. I feel edgier and spunky - that's my personality.

My natural hair color is darkest brown - that was 18 years ago - but anyway people now think I am Chinese or Latino. I did not expect the reaction I am having with this new hair color. I never needed validation from anyone to feel good about my sense of style. I like dressing to fit my personality - not at all conventional and like to change my look about 3 times a year or so.

Thanks for the inspiration, Ms Bolsover. So keep the letters coming. I really do appreciate all the information that I get from you." Noreen, USA

"I can honestly say, I really enjoy your stuff! I come from the same training background as you and a lot of what is said in this industry gives colour & style analysis a bad name, but you are doing a great job. Well done. I always get a laugh from your stuff as well, because you tell it like it is." Niamh, Ireland

"Your emails are so good - lots of helpful hints but with a lot of humour!" SS, Doha, Qatar

"Just to say thank you for sending these tips, I enjoy reading them. I worked in Colour Analysis for a time but don't any more and it's so nice to keep up with it in this way." CR, Nottingham, UK
